

The Center for Urban Responses to Environmental Stressors

Community Engagement Core

Detroit Mini-Grant Program

Request for Applications

Awarding Mini-Grants up to $4,000
Focused on Environmental Health in Detroit

Purpose

The purpose of this program is to support and/or help initiate small-scale projects and initiatives focused on environmental health issues within the City of Detroit.

Examples of Project Topics

Built Environment • Air Quality • Toxicants • Exposure
Air Quality • Soil • Pollutants • Water • Social Stressors
Brownfields • Noise • Dumping • Deconstruction

Applications Due: March 8, 2019

Awards Announced: March 15, 2019

Projects Begin: April 1, 2019

Access the application here

Please submit application via email to carrieleach@wayne.edu with subject:
"2019 Detroit Mini-Grant Application"

Questions? Contact Carrie Leach, Program Manager at 313-664-2612 or carrieleach@wayne.edu

CURES is funded by the National Institute for Environmental Health #P30ES020957