

The Center for Urban Responses to Environmental Stressors

Community Outreach and Engagement Core
Detroit-Based Grant Program

Request for Applications:

Awarding Mini-Grants up to $5,000

Focused on Matters of Environmental Health

Purpose:

The purpose of this program is to support and/or help initiate small-scale action, intervention, or research-based initiatives focused on environmental health concerns in the City of Detroit.

Examples of Project Topics:

Built Environment • Air Quality • Toxicants • Exposure
Air Quality • Soil • Pollutants • Water • Social Stressors
Brownfields • Noise • Dumping • Deconstruction

Application Due: February 1, 2017

Announcement of Award: February 15, 2017

Projects Begin: March 1, 2017

To access the application visit our website at <http://cures.wayne.edu/community-engagement.php>

Please submit application via email to carrieleach@wayne.edu with subject:
"Detroit-Based Grant Program Application"

Grant Program Coordinator: Carrie Leach
Contact: 313-664-2612 or carrieleach@wayne.edu

CURES is funded by the National Institute for Environmental Health #P30ES020957