

The Center for Urban Responses to Environmental Stressor Presents

Detroit Mini-Grant Program

Request for Applications Announcement

Awarding Mini-Grants up to $0,000

DETROIT
Health Department

Purpose

The purpose of this program is to support and/or help initiate small-scale projects and initiatives focused on local air quality monitoring within the City of Detroit.

Applications due	May 31
Awards announced	Jun 7
Project start date	Jun 10
Preliminary report due	Sep 23

Please submit application via email to [TBD] with subject:
"2019 Detroit Air Quality Mini- Grant Application"

Questions: Contact Carrie Leach, CURES Community Engagement Program Manager
313-664-2612 or carrieach@wayne.edu

CURES is funded by the National Institute for Environmental Health #P30ES020957